Samuel Benjamin Sherman was born in New York State and died in DeKalb County Indiana as a result of injuries received when kicked by a house and is buried at 16 cemetary north of Garrett Indiana. He and Eunice Edic were married and lived in New York State untill between 1833 and 1835 when they removed to Ohio to the vicinity of Kirtland, Geauga County, Ohio, where they farmed until between 1846 and 1850 when they removed to Richland township, DeKalb County, Indiana. Theabove listings were found thus in the 1850 census, with exception to Cornelia's actual birth and death dates.
